

Welcome. I see you have made it to Stanley's most recent known location. I've been here since 9:34 so you're barely behind me. We were tracking Yvonne when we lost the trail at 3:24. We got a call at 5:23 saying that an Earth Liberation Front member had Stanley in the city, and we took him downtown. This is his place, we're almost done. He'll be booked by midnight, maybe 11:38. He'll be arraigned on charges of conspiracy to kidnap and grand theft auto. We won't be able to get anything out of the guy until 12:11 so we need you to decode this packet Stanley dropped to get us back on track. Yvonne and Stanley's lives are in your hands.
